OPERATIONS

General Manager

Reporting to the Contract Director, you will be responsible for the day-to-day delivery of excellent customer services within one of our portfolio of contracts.

Duties include responsibility for all operational staff, budgets and contract performance across hard and soft FM services. You will maintain excellent client relationships, drive, innovation and ensure compliance with contractual obligations, Key Performance and Management Indicators.

You will have significant experience in FM management (preferably both hard and soft) within a government or similar contract environment, at a senior management level.

You should be able to demonstrate success in your current and previous roles and have experience of managing multi-functional teams. A natural leader, with effective motivational and communication skills, you will be adept in financial management, service improvement and auditing

A relevant degree or equivalent would be highly desirable, together with membership of a relevant professional institution.

This post offers an attractive salary and benefits package, according to the skills and the experience a candidate brings to the role.

Employment in this post is dependant upon obtaining security clearance.
